

Dupree, et al v. Walker, et al, 87-cv-03088-ADM (E.D. Mass.)

DOJ altered Massachusetts court docket to hide Robert S. Mueller's prior associations with Patrick L. Duval—Obama's & Jarrett's top choice to challenge Donald Trump in 2020

Now that is a secret worth hiding, Mr. Mueller, isn't it?

- Your agenda in the Trump-Russia “nothing burger” (CNN) has just been uncovered by your own confirmation disclosure and the subsequent spoliation of the Massachusetts District Court record in one of your only civil case at Hill & Barlow.
- Did you delete the record? Did the judge? Did the Clerk ? Exactly who are you hiding?
- In any event, tell us about your 30-year association with Patrick Deval, Obama's choice to replace Donald Trump.

On Jul. 30, 2001, Robert S. Mueller testified to the Senate Judiciary Committee in his confirmation hearing to be FBI Director. As a part of the confirmation process, candidates for senior judiciary positions like judges and heads of agencies must submit a formal statement that provides details of their work history, experience and writings. Frankly, it is one of the few times when these lawyers are the most truthful.

Mueller's professional history is mostly as a prosecutor for various U.S. Attorneys. However, from Sep. 1988 to Apr. 1989 Mueller worked for a boutique Boston law firm named Hill & Barlow (PDF page 32).

The only non-criminal case that Mueller disclosed was, Dupree v. Walker (PDF page 42).

(4) Dupree, et al. v. Walker, et al.

While a partner at Hill & Barlow, I represented Thomas and Frederick Dupree in a series of lawsuits with their former partner, Christopher Walker, arising from their joint participation in a number of real estate development projects in the Washington, DC, area. The case went to trial on charges of breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duties. I was lead trial counsel. The case was settled in the middle of trial, with the Duprees receiving a substantial monetary settlement.

Docket number: 87-3088-MA

Dates of representation: 9/88 to 4/89

Court: U.S.D.C., D. Massachusetts

Judge: A. David Mazzone

Opposing Counsel:

James S. Dittmar, Esq.
Hutchins, Wheeler & Dittmar

Boston, MA 02110

However, the Massachusetts District Court record on this case has been cleansed of any and all information about Mueller's activities in the case. And, since Mueller testified under oath that he was the "lead trial counsel" on this case, the information about his fellow Hill & Barlow co-counsel(s) is also missing from the record.

A court docket is a public record that may not be censored. The clerk of court for that court, under orders from his/her judge, does at times seal records from public access for various reasons of confidentiality, but those actions must be documented nonetheless. No such clerk records are shown.

This case was a civil contract dispute that went to trial, so a normal record will include many entries regarding attorney applications to enter the case, discovery, motions, orders, trial preparation and jury instructions. None of that is in the record.

Worse, the names of the attorneys have been removed. Here is the docket regarding attorneys approved by the judge to the case:

The absence of a court record in the only civil case that Mueller disclosed in his 2001 Senate Confirmation Hearing begs the question of what is being hidden.

Hill & Barlow ceased operation as a 150-man Boston law firm in 2002. No commercial websites existed back in 1988-1989 when Mueller was a partners.

However, the website " NNB Tracking the Entire World" carries a summary of certain prominent Hill & Barlow partners:

Robert S. Mueller, III + Deval J. Patrick = Mega Conflict of Interest

Further investigation, reveals that Deval J. Patrick worked at Hill & Barlow at the same time that Mueller was there.

On Mar. 22, 1994 thru 1997, Deval was appointed to be United States Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Rights Division. Therefore, Patrick worked with Robert S. Mueller, III, James Comey, Eric H. Holder, Jr., Loretta Lynch, James P. Chandler, III, Andrew G. McCabe and Rod J. Rosenstein who are prominent in the current Trump-Russia witch hunt.

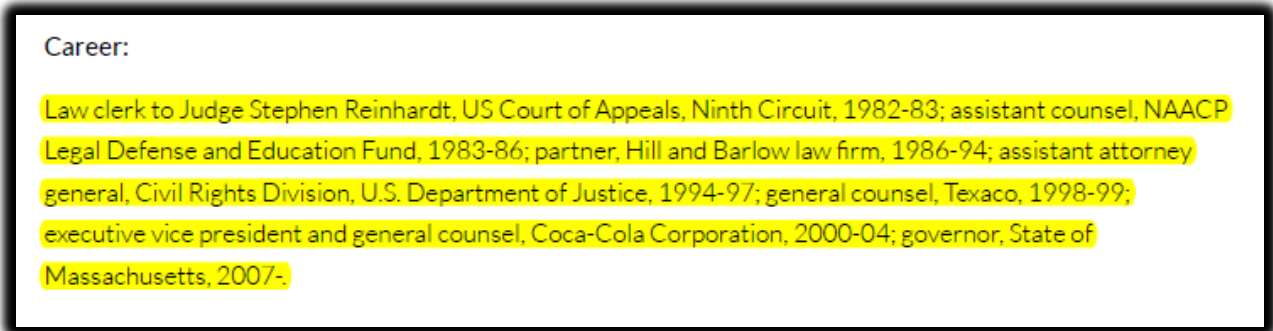

Figure 10: Graphic: <http://www.encyclopedia.com/people/history/us-history-biographies/deval-patrick> | See also <https://www.fbcoverup.com/docs/library/2017-12-07-Deval-Patrick-bio-Encyclopedia-Dec-07-2017.pdf>

In 2001, Deval became chief counsel to Coca-Cola where mainstream media don and Clinton Foundation funder Barry Diller was a director. See AFI article exposing Chelsea Clinton's mentoring by Diller.

In 2016, Deval was reported widely to be on Hillary Clinton's short list as Vice President.

On Aug. 01, 2017, Politico published an article saying that Duval, Mueller's long-time associate, is Obama's and Valerie Jarrett's top choice to run against President Donald Trump in 2020.

"If you were to poll 100 notable Obama alumni, the only two people who would win that 2020 straw poll right now are [Joe] Biden and Patrick," said one former senior White House aide.

"Patrick and Obama met 20 years ago, when Patrick was in private practice. Put in touch through a Harvard Law Review connection, Obama called him for money for his state Senate run. Patrick, in a story he likes to tell, excitedly told Obama he'd write the biggest check he could. Obama started laughing. Illinois law had no limit, he told him."

Edward-Issac Doveve. \(Aug. 01, 2017\). Obama's Inner Circle Is Urging Deval Patrick to Run. Politico.

On Aug. 02, 2017, Express.co.uk confirmed that Deval is the Deep State's choice:

Nicole Stinson. \(Aug. 02, 2017\). REVEALED: This is who Obama is backing for next US President 'to run against Donald Trump.' Express.co.uk.

Conclusion:

Robert Mueller has been a colleague of Patrick Deval since 1988 when they were partners at Hill & Barlow in Boston.

The court record in Dupree, et al. v. Walker, et al., 87-cv-3088-ADM (USDC, D. Massachusetts) 9/88 to 4/99—one of Mueller's few civil cases in his short eight months at the firm is SPOILED.

Meuller's co-counsel in Dupree v. Walker could very likely be Patrick Deval, Deval's subsequent associations with Democratic Deep State operatives including Bill Clinton, Hillary Clinton, James P. Chandler, III, John D. Podesta, Eric H. Holder, Jr. make Mueller's partisan dealings with the Trump investigation all but certain.

Then, when we sees that after Clinton left office, Deval became chief counsel at Coca-Cola where MSM godfather, Clinton Foundation donor and Chelsea Clinton mentor Barry Diller was a director at the time. He also became chief counsel at ACC Capital Holdings (mortgage) that magically merged with Citigroup before the 2008 bank bailout.

Did we mention he is yet another Harvard Law graduate?

Deval's Deep State shadow government curriculum vitae is clear.

The fact that Mueller's only civil case at Hill & Barlow is almost certainly hiding Mueller's close association with Deval for almost thirty years.

Is Mueller's working to destabilize President Trump in preparation for Patrick Deval's 2010 run for President?

Almost certainly.

In any event, Mueller must come clean on these associations. He has never said a peep about his associations with Deval.

Federal leaders must "avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest" in their service to the American public.

Are we getting our money's worth with Meuller?

Clearly not.
